Dear Mr. President,

July I write you this to Geneva, since I expect seeing you to plead for the release of Raoul Wallenberg from Russia into my custody. 3709820 8537756

Since he is one of only three honorary Americans, possibly Mr. Gorbachev would consider his release to the American people. Raoul is first cousin to my late husband Dr. John Calvin Orr: my family would bring him back to good health, and then he could get in touch with his sister Nina in Stockholm, Sweden.

Please, Mr. President, appeal to Mr. Gorbachev Ego, it would make him a Hero around the World, for such a humane act.

Dear Mr. President you could make my Christmas the happiest the happiest one in my whole life. I am 82 years old and going strong. Please your the stanley wetering Raoul would have a fine family with us including my daughter Frances Grandaughter Jeanine, and great grandson Robert and me.

Please Mr. President, do this for us. We shall be forever grateful. The enclosed letter will explain all.

I am hoping to make a trip to my native land, Ireland before I die.

We all at home all Love you & Nancy.

Most Respectfully Yours

I am Irene...

Best Wishes for a Happy & Peaceful Holiday.
